Significant Letter from Governor Hoyt.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., November 3.—Governor Hoyt, of Pennsylvania, has written a significant letter to Wharton Barker, of Philadelphia, in reply to an invitation to preside at a meeting of the independent Republicans in that city to-night. Expressing hearty sympathy with the independent Republican movement, Governor Hoyt says: "When I reflect upon the humiliation put upon my self as chief magistrate for resisting some of the purposes of the machine which puts politics above administrative prosperity, and when I reflect upon the force of the insulting methods applied to myself by means of threats, intrigue and bad faith, I realize Cardinal Wolsey's regret that he had not served his God with half the zeal he had his king." In the name of decency and in behalf of my successor, I wish to emphasize the curse of the whole business and sound a note of warning to the whole people. Peace will never come until the moral forces in politics, which you have organized, prevail, and they certainly will prevail. In the future, the duty of the State house at Harrisburg will be more resound with the tread of claqueurs, hastily sent to summon self-respecting and honorable delegates of the people to base submission to slated tickets and prearranged programmes, threatened with ostracism, in case of non-compliance, or sent home dishonored, to face their angry constituents whom they have betrayed; and thus will be debased the power before which they are compelled to bow all who have sought honors or promotion at the hands of Republican constituencies. With your ultimate success will have been made an exhibition of moral courage in our State and the reaping of beneficial results from peaceful methods, which shall more grandly than ever demonstrate the capacity of the people for self-government.

Death of J. W. Simonton.

New York, Nov. 3.—A dispatch from New York City, dated November 3, at this residence, near that city, of James W. Simonton, one of the proprietors of the San Francisco Bulletin and San Francisco Morning Call, and late general agent of the New York Associated Press. He died of heart disease last evening. Mr. Simonton was born in Columbia County, New York, in 1824, was educated in the public schools of New York City. He became a law reporter for a city newspaper in 1845, and shortly afterwards went to Washington and was Congressional reporter for the Courier and Enquirer. He went to California in 1850, and was for a time one of the editors of the San Francisco Courier, but soon returned to New York. He was one of the original staff of assistants to Henry J. Raymond at the establishment of the New York Times, and for seven years was the Washington correspondent of that paper, during which time he was influential in the exposure of several noted cases of bribery and corruption on the part of members of Congress, and was in custody several weeks on an order of the House for declining to give to its committee the services of his information. He again went to California in 1857, and became editor and one of the proprietors of the San Francisco Evening Bulletin. He was its war correspondent during the rebellion, and became general agent of the Associated Press in 1865, still retaining, however, his interest in and active connection with his San Francisco newspaper. The proprietors of the Evening Bulletin having about 1869 purchased the San Francisco Bulletin, he resigned the general agency of the Associated Press in July, 1881, and removed to New York City, where he had purchased a considerable estate, upon which he was residing at the time of his death.

The Jeannette Inquiry.

WASHINGTON, November 3.—Chief Engineer Melville will be called before the Senate to-day to answer the questions of the committee on the Jeannette expedition, which is generally commended upon, though the subject was not mentioned at the meeting of the board. Judge Advocate Semly stated in reply to the inquiry that he had been in correspondence with Dr. Collins, and had for some time been aware of his (Collins) views in the matter, that the court proposes to investigate the subject to the bottom, and would receive every opinion that Dr. Collins might offer in the nature of competent evidence. That Lieutenant Danenhöfer, although his examination in chief has been concluded, will doubtless be recalled in connection with the investigation of the charges made by Dr. Collins. Mr. Semly further expressed that it was the intention of the court to examine every survivor of the Jeannette expedition, and that if Mr. Bartlett, who, as alleged by Dr. Collins, was purposely kept in Liberia, and not returned to this country. When the examination of the other witnesses is concluded, the court will take a recess and wait his return. Lieutenant Danenhöfer naturally declined to make any statements for publication in relation to Dr. Collins' charges, or even to express any opinion other than the somewhat significant remark when told that the court proposed to investigate them to the bottom, "Well that is right, they ought to do so."

Melville Declined to be Interviewed.

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 3.—Chief Engineer Melville's attention was this morning called to what Dr.

VOL. XIII.

Collins, brother of the lieutenant of the Jeannette expedition, is reported to have said relative to Captain DeLong's alleged persecution of his (Collins) brother and Melville's conduct after landing in Siberia. Mr. Melville declined, however, to make any statement for publication in vindication of himself, saying, "I have seen the published statements. I don't know anything about the matter. I don't wish to say anything about it now. The least said is soonest mended, and the newspapers get things mixed up. I shall soon appear before the board which is charged with an investigation of the entire matter, and I must decline to say anything at all for the newspapers."

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 3.—A series of gold certificates will be ready for issuance next week, when the small denominations from the South and West will be supplied. A million and a half are wanted in New Orleans.

Secretary Folger has received a report from Special Agent Nevin, inclosing estimates for the expense of collecting customs revenue from the districts of Natchez and Vicksburg for the fiscal year, ending June 30th, 1884. He recommends an increased compensation, with a view of making the position at Vicksburg an object for competition by competent persons, if not abolished. In his opinion the interest of the service would be better secured by consolidating these districts with the Pearl River district, and the appointment of a deputy collector at Natchez, and a deputy at Vicksburg.

Information Wanted.

New York, November 3.—Henry L. Clapp, of the firm of Freebank & Co., of this city, left his home on the morning of Saturday, October 21st, to be absent a few days, with a considerable amount of money in his possession. Since that date diligent search has been made, but nothing has been heard from him. Any information will be gladly received by his firm in New York, or any of its branch houses elsewhere. There is no motive whatever for Mr. Clapp's disappearance. His accounts are entirely correct and he had a large balance at his bank.

Very Indignant.

ASHLAND, Ky., November 3.—The buildings here are festooned with crepe, and all business is suspended. The funerals of three of the victims of Wednesday's violence, took place at 10 o'clock. Six of the wounded are not expected to live. The citizens are very indignant against Gov. Beckett and Judge Brown. The latter has fled from the scene. A meeting of citizens last night, steps were taken to raise funds to pay the funeral expenses of the killed and wounded. There is still great excitement.

All Quiet.

TUCSON, Ariz., November 3.—A special from Guaymas, Mexico, under date of the 2nd inst., says all the Governor's troops and employees have surrendered to General Reyes, at Huerfania.

On the evening of the 29th ult., the Governor was attacked in his house by a mob, and on the following day he fled from the city on a special train, with a guard given him by General Reyes to protect him from insults and attempts at assassination. All is now quiet.

Star Route Bribery Case.

WASHINGTON, November 3.—In the Star Route jury bribery case, the United States against Arthur Payne, the examination of witnesses in behalf of the government closed to-day. The defense had no witnesses, and after a brief summation by Mr. Davis for Payne, and by Mr. Ker for the government, both sides rested.

Judge Snell reserved his decision until Wednesday.

Riotous Demonstration.

VIENNA, November 3.—A riotous demonstration of a serious character occurred here to-day. Three hundred members of the shoemakers' union, who a few days ago, gathered in High street, shouting we must have blood, we must have a blaze. The police were badly used and several wounded. Subsequently troops arrived and dispersed the mob.

MINOR DISPATCHES.

St. Joseph, Mo., November 3.—Ex-Governor Willard P. Proll, of this city, died to-day at half-past one o'clock.

Brownsville, Tex., November 3.—The steamer Harris leaves to-morrow for New Orleans. She takes passengers, mail and freight.

Fort Fairfield, Me., November 3.—Fred Hutchinson, of Easton, cut his wife's throat, and then his own, this morning. Both died in a short time.

Horseford's Acid Phosphate Pleasant to Taste.

Dr. A. L. HALL, East Haven, N. Y., says: "Have prescribed it with marked benefit in indigestion and urinary troubles."

The Nashville American reports our fellow townsman, Hon. Peter Staub, as saying that the German vote is fast leaving the Republican party, but in that he is certainly mistaken.

Good Advice.

You will prevent and cure the greater part of the ills that afflict mankind in this or any section, if you keep your stomach, liver and kidneys in perfect working order. There is no medicine known that does this as surely as Parker's Ginger Tonic. It will keep your blood rich and pure, and give you good health at little cost. See other columns.

HOUK IN 1865.

To the Voters of the Second Congressional District of Tennessee.

Fellow Citizens:—Maynard is a candidate. He was in Congress during the first two years of the war. What did he do for the soldiers? He voted to condemn the President for calling out troops to suppress the rebellion. He voted to condemn Major Anderson for defending Fort Sumter. He is in favor of negro suffrage! He says no man can give a good reason why the negro shall not vote. I am opposed to negroes and rebels voting! Now look at Maynard! He has asked to have four offices in the last six months. First, he requested the President to give him a foreign appointment. He did not get it. He then asked Tennessee to send him as a senator to Congress. He then asked Johnson to give him a Cabinet appointment. He did not get that. And now he comes back here and wants you to send him to Congress.

Remember what I say! I will be elected, and Maynard can desert from the militia or go to school teaching if he desires.

I am, respectfully,
L. C. HOUK.

GIBSON'S OPPOSITION TO MR. MAYNARD.

Why he Opposed Maynard's Election to the United States Senate.

We clip the following extract from the Knoxville Republican of January 24th, 1881. Read, ponder and reflect:

"PRINCIPLES AND NOT PERSONS IS TRUE REPUBLICANISM."

"The Republican party is a party of principles; and not a party of persons for persons; not a party of plunder; not a party of bargain, sale and corruption. What we want is true men in office. These we must have. This is the only prerequisite. This prerequisite existing in any man everything else is non-essential. 'Whenever the party risks its fortunes on any one man, then danger is sure, and defeat probable. That is why the Republican opposed the nomination of Grant. Not that we disliked Grant. On the other hand, we recognized him as the greatest character now living upon the face of the whole earth. Our soul bowed, in homage, not in worship, of his greatness and fame. But we believed his nomination would be dangerous to Republican success. 'This is why we have opposed the candidacy of Maynard.'"

I am very glad to say I have tried Hop Bitters, and never took anything that did me as much good. I only took two bottles and I would not take $100 for the good they did me. I recommended them to my patients, and get the best results from their use.

C. B. MILLER, M. D.

[From Washington Critic, Monday, June 19, 1882.]

Among those who spent Saturday night in the eighth precinct station, rumor says there was a member of Congress. He was arrested on the charge of "drunk and disorderly," and gave his name as Campbell. The doughty M. C. will not appear at the police court to-day, as he preferred to forfeit $5 collateral. Why, certainly.

The Delight of the Ladies, because it enhances their charms tenfold, is SOZODONT, with which no dentrifice can compare. It checks premature decay of the teeth, completely removing tartar from the surfaces, interstices and cavities, whitening them, rendering the gums healthy and coraline and the breath as balmy as the odor of flowers. The gritty and acid properties which render many tooth powders and washes objectionable are not to be found in America's favorite teeth restoratives.

Dr. William B. Devereux, of Fleetwood, Pa., has sued the New York Tribune for $50,000 damages, for alleged defamation of character. The Doctor has also instituted suit against the Evening News and Chronicle and Herald, of Philadelphia, for $25,000 each.

$1,000 REWARD.

No More Vague Denials of the Ebbitt House Scandal.

Calaboose-Ebbitt-House-Houk Can Take Notice.

We have heard, during the last two or three days, of vague denials of the Ebbitt House scandal, and have even seen a statement published pretending to have been signed by a certain John Conners. Now we submit to an intelligent people that the sworn testimony of the man who caught Congressman Houk in his disgraceful amour is worth considerably more than the simple statement of this poor, yoke-ridden clerk, who wears the collar labelled "Houk." We pity the poor fellow from the bottom of our heart, just as we pity the anti-bellum slaves, or the post-bellum slaves, but this is not the point.

In our first article, introducing the House scandal, we mentioned that if the affidavit was not a true one, Mr. Houk could recover damages from this office, and that it is perfectly solvent. We have heard of no suit for libel against us and we will give Mr. C. E. A. Houk another chance. We will give $500 reward for an affidavit from Mr. Willard, the proprietor of the Ebbitt House, and another $500 for one from Mr. Burch, the head clerk of this hotel, denying that the facts as alleged by Henry James are substantially true. We mean business, and if Houk wants to make enough money to pay a part of the dollars this campaign has cost him, let him produce the affidavits and get the reward.

THE DOUBLE EXECUTION.

Hanging next Friday of Milt and Sam Hodge, for the Murder of McFarland.

The days of Milt and Sam Hodge, colored, brothers, convicted of the murder at Black Oak Ridge, in Sept. 1881, of their brother-in-law, James McFarland, are numbered, and that number is dwindling down fine. By the affirmation of their sentence at the present term of the Supreme Court, the date of the execution was fixed for Friday, Nov. 10th, 1882.

For some little time after the final sentence there was some talk of an effort to secure a pardon from the Governor, but no definite action was taken in that direction. Both the doomed men seem to have become entirely resigned to their fate. Both have made professions of religion, and they have had daily visitations and ministrations, especially during the past week, by different colored ministers, as well as by members of the Young Men's Christian Association and other Christian men. They appear to be reconciled and at peace, devoting much time each day to devotional exercises, and express themselves prepared for the end. In fact they expressed the wish last Sunday that the day was last Friday, instead of next. Sam, who was quite sick for some time, including the time of the trial in the Supreme Court, has recovered, and both are in reasonably good health. Every attention necessary is given them by the worthy sheriff and his efficient jailer and assistants.

The site selected by Sheriff Homer Gilmer, for the execution, is in the swamp about three hundred yards from the end of the bridge, south of the river, and the scaffold will be erected. According to the arrangement, the condemned men will be started from the jail about half past 12 o'clock p. m., on Friday, and the execution will take place between the hours of one and two.

This will be Sheriff Gilmer's first experience in that line. The last execution in Knoxville was that of John Webb, by Sheriff M. D. Swan, in 1875.

Knoxville's Methodist Pulpits.

The appointments of the recent session of the Holston Conference of the M. E. Church, held at Chattanooga, were given in our columns. By that list it is known that the first M. E. Church in this city was left to be supplied. The supply has been made by the transfer from Atlanta, Ga., of Rev. E. C. Cooke, an able and promising minister, well known and liked by that charge. He will enter upon his ministry to-day.

The former worthy pastor of that church, Rev. C. B. Sparrow, who had served three years with acceptability as such, was promoted to the presiding eldership of the Knoxville district, and continues his residence in Knoxville. He enters upon his work next Saturday and Sunday, holding his first quarterly meeting at Newport, Cocke County. He succeeds Rev. J. A. Ruble, who labored so ably and faithfully on the district the last time, and who was appointed travelling agent for the E. T. W. University at Athens, Georgia.

The pulpit of the Second Church, on Clinton place, is filled by Rev. J. W. Mann, one of the ablest and most eloquent members of the conference, who had filled out his time on the Greenville district, and the former beloved pastor of Second Church, Rev. C. D. Munsey, takes charge of the Sevier circuit.

The appointments of the Holston Conference of the Church South, are in this issue. By them it will be seen that Rev. J. H. Keith, D. D., is assigned to Church Street Church. He is a gifted and eloquent divine, and is well known in Knoxville. The charge, as well as the entire community, who have known and respected him so long, regret to lose the former able and zealous pastor, Rev. G. C. Rankin, D. D., who had served out his four years with great satisfaction and success, and who goes now to Asheville. He is in the city yet, and will preach at that church to-day.

Broad Street Church is fortunate in securing Rev. R. H. Parker, from Bristol, as pastor. He is a pastor and minister of decided merit and ability. His predecessor, Rev. J. T. Frazier, goes to Peachmont mission, in Virginia. The city mission is to be supplied by Rev. W. B. Pickett being assigned to Davidson mission.

Rev. T. S. Kennedy, one of the ablest and most experienced elders of the conference, is retained as presiding elder on the district, which position he has filled quite satisfactorily for the past year.

NONPAREIL.

Impartial Verdicts.

It is with pleasure and great satisfaction that the firm of Foss & Schneider can submit to the public the following impartial verdicts regarding the qualities of the "Nonpareil" Export Lager Beer.

"NONPAREIL" ON THE SEA.

Messrs. Foss & Schneider, Queen City Brewery, Cincinnati, O.: GENTLEMEN: Having returned from Europe, we take pleasure in informing you that your "Nonpareil" Export Lager, which we had aboard our German pioneer excursion steamer "Suevia," has gloriously stood the many tests it was subjected to; and the "Nonpareil" was ever preferred to the many different kinds of German and American beers we had aboard. This, however, was not astonishing, as though your beer had not previously undergone the steaming process, and when upon our arrival in Hamburg, it was submitted to the most critical test at most thorough German beer gardens, and was pronounced by them a beer pure and strengthening, never equalled and not to be competed with.

The "Nonpareil" was really as clear and palatable on the very last day of our journey as it was in the very first hour of departure from here; while various kinds of beer became sour and unpleasant, your "Nonpareil" always preserved its beautiful amber color, clear as crystal and most pleasing taste. Most gratifying are the recollections, when several of our friends were annoyed by the troublesome attacks of sea sickness, and speedily relieved by the medicinal qualities of your "Nonpareil" Export Lager Beer.

With pleasure we certify that, for purity and strength, the "Nonpareil" Export Lager Beer cannot be excelled or esteemed too highly. Respectfully,

FRANK A. GREYER,
M. BETTMANN,
ANTHONY KINSCHER,
WILLIAM MEER.

Cincinnati, August 22, 1882.

P. S.—Having taken four bottles of your "Nonpareil" Export Lager with me to Nürnberg, it was subjected to the criticism of the most competent brewers and hop dealers, and I am glad to assert that the "Nonpareil" was pronounced something unusual, in regard to its brilliancy, purity and invigorating qualities.

Yours truly,
M. BETTMANN.
